MASTERWORKS

Masterworks is a carefully curated selection of the finest watches that go beyond the bounds of haute horlogerie by combining outstanding technical performance with artistic aesthetics.

Each Masterworks timepieces tells a unique story defined by tradition, innovation, and tireless dedication. Join us on an immersive journey through the world of haute horlogerie. Together, we will delve into the wonders of the tourbillon, the perpetual calendar, skeletonization, gem-setting, and niche artistry while taking a closer look at the “métiers d’art” behind these creations to understand what makes these watches timeless masterpieces.

TOURBILLON

DEFYING GRAVITY

Tourbillons are unquestionably among the most sophisticated complications. Their blend of technical sophistication, enhanced accuracy, and aesthetic allure has captivated watch enthusiasts for over 200 years, making tourbillon watches highly coveted marvels of technology.

PERPETUAL CALENDAR

A CALENDAR FOR THE AGES

Perpetual calendars represent the perfect fusion of traditional watchmaking craftsmanship and modern precision. Their complex mechanisms record the hours, minutes, and seconds of the day in addition to the complex cycles of time: days, months, years, and even leap years. In their perfectly precise interplay of wheels and springs, they reveal the beauty and elegance of time itself.

SKELETON

DEEP INSIGHTS INTO THE HEART OF THE WATCH

Skeletonized watches are finely crafted works of art, revealing what usually remains hidden. Every element, however small, is beautifully staged to capture the movement of time in its purest form. The open construction allows time to be not just read but experienced.

ARMIN STROM

Armin Strom's creations unveil the essence of time through intricate, handmade movements inspired by the science that drives them. They push the boundaries of horological standards in terms of precision, reliability, and aesthetic appeal. Each Armin Strom timepiece is hand-crafted, with 97% of movement components developed, produced, and finished by hand in its manufacture in Biel/Bienne.

For over two and a half centuries, Breguet has embodied a creative spirit, where humility meets audacity in the art of watchmaking. Each complication, whether it's a tourbillon, a minute repeater, or a perpetual calendar, embodies the unmatched heritage and craftsmanship of the House. Every Breguet timepiece incorporates mechanical masterpieces with unparalleled elegance, offering much more than a simple measure of time: a true watchmaking experience.

Chopard's strongly ingrained philosophy of independence has inspired the brand to master the full range of production operations. Chopard's Grand Complication watches feature some of the most significant breakthroughs in watchmaking, while its Métiers d'art watches are the epitome of luxurious craftsmanship. Chopard's master artisans work with the most precious materials to design the most beautiful watches.

Glashütte Original stands for innovative watchmaking art that meets the highest standards. Each timepiece is exclusive and exceptional, with no more than few hundred of any given model produced each year.

Glashütte Original timepieces are the product of the best in German engineering and craftsmanship: technically sophisticated, reliably precise, and timeless beautiful.

The world's oldest watch brand, Blancpain, constantly pushes the limits of watchmaking with innovative calibres that are often a world's first. The strength of the Manufacture lies in its capacity to create timepieces that are at once innovative and respectful of the Swiss watchmaking tradition. Thanks to constant innovation and complete control over the manufacturing process, Blancpain has absolute freedom of creation, even down to the last detail.

As one of the few independent watchmakers fully in control of the creation of its watches, Breitling is continuously raising industry standards. Esteemed manufacturing practices and an obsession with quality inspire the Swiss heritage brand to ensure each watch holds the superior status of COSC-certification. Above all else, Breitling honors the spirit of innovation that drives its global reputation for high quality watchmaking.

Czapek is the first Haute Horlogerie company revived by watch connoisseurs worldwide: made by watch enthusiasts for watch enthusiasts. Czapek's mission is to continue François Czapek's quest for beauty without attempting to define it. Each new creation is comprised of two parts: one timeless and the other a reflection of modern times.

For 233 years, Girard-Perregaux has redefined the limits of watchmaking. Girard-Perregaux's place at the forefront of horological innovation is confirmed by over one hundred recorded patents. It remains one of the few watchmakers to retain manufacture status by mastering all the required horological skills in-house and making watches infused with a notable degree of authenticity.

Heinrich Moser founded his eponymous company in 1828 with one ambition: to create exceptional watches that showcase high-quality craftsmanship and premium components. H. Moser & Cie. is an independent, Swiss, family-run business with a long history of entrepreneurialism. Every movement is crafted in-house, and each watch is meticulously built and finished by hand.

Hublot creates timepieces that explore the "Art of Fusion": the fusion of the past and present, traditional and modern, and even the conventional mechanisms and their unique construction.

Through the production of micro-components to the development of innovative materials, the Hublot Manufacture possesses all the necessary know-how and infrastructure to make the future of watchmaking a reality today.

Founded by Jacob Arabo in 1986, Jacob & Co. has a unique talent for creating designs that are as innovative as they are spectacular. At the heart of the company is Mr. Arabo's passion, drive, and creative force. With respect for traditional craftsmanship, artistry and an ability to envision and realize exquisite jewellery and unique timepieces, he makes the extraordinary a reality.

Ressence was founded in 2010 with one goal: reimagining how mechanical watches function and interact with users in the modern age. Winners of the 2013 Horological Revelation Award at the prestigious Grand Prix d'Horlogerie, Ressence combines Swiss-made calibres with unparalleled self-engineered innovation to redefine fine watchmaking for the 21st century.

Founded in 2004, HAUTLENCE - whose name is an anagram of Neuchâtel - pays tribute to the birthplace of the watchmaking craft. HAUTLENCE unites traditional watchmaking codes with innovative mechanical solutions combining design, architecture, and movement. The brand takes inspiration from various arts to create new approaches to time display, elevating the two key dimensions of space and time.
